

WME AUTHOR TO ATTEND BALTIMORE BOOK FESTIVAL

ROCHESTER, NY (September 24, 2007): Dr. Claudia Lynn Thomas, the first African-American, female orthopedic surgeon in the United States will be bringing her new autobiography, God Spare Life, to the Baltimore Book Festival. The Festival will be held in Baltimore's historic Mount Vernon Square and will run from Friday, September 28th through Sunday, September 30th

Dr. Thomas will at the event on Friday evening from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. to meet and greet the many who attend, and will be signing copies of her new book. The Baltimore Book Festival is now in its 12th year, and is one of the largest book festivals of its kind in the United States. Over 150 new authors will be participating.

This is one of a number of personal appearances and book signings that Dr. Thomas has been conducting since God Spare Life was released two months ago. More information about the Festival can be found on their website, www.baltimorebookfestival.com.
